Mr. Rhodes' Unpaid Tailor Bill.

The late Cecil Rhodes, whose African career had its origin in delicate health, was an intimate friend of Sir H. H. Johnston, who tells a characteristic story concerning him.

Mr. Rhodes was visiting Sir Harry in London at the time for the purpose of talking over African problems and settling some vasty important matters of policy when there burst in unannounced an excited individual flourishing a voluminous account which it appeared represented an unpaid tailor bill of Mr. Rhodes. Incurred at Oxford and amounting to nearly two hundred pounds sterling. From various pockets Mr. Rhodes fished out notes and gold to the amount required and paid the astonished tailor on the spot.

DETROIT'S BIG SHOW.

President Taft has set in motion the wheels of the great Detroit Industrial Exposition, to be held from June 20th to July 6th, under the auspices of the Detroit Board of Commerce.

This exhibition of home products is one of the largest displays of the kind ever held, including an automobile show, a good fair, a machinery display, a furniture exhibit, an electrical show and interesting exhibits in other lines. The occasion will be a rare opportunity to see "what makes Detroit and what Detroit makes."

Among the many special features will be exhibits of the public schools, the Y. M. C. A., and the Public Library. Two great buildings are in use for the display of the city's products. One is the Wayne Pavilion, Detroit's largest hall, and the other an exposition building erected for the purpose and adjoining the pavilion. The new building is one of the largest ever erected for exhibition purposes and is completely equipped.

On the river front a spacious garden is a charming and unique feature, enhanced by floral decorations and brilliant electrical illuminations. Two concert bands are giving afternoon and evening musical programs, playing simultaneously in different parts of the Exposition grounds.

A Man's True Worth.

Every good act is charity. Your smiling in your brother's face is charity; an exhortation to your fellow-man to virtuous deeds is equal to almsgiving; your putting a wanderer in the right road is charity; your assisting the blind is charity; your removing stones and thorns and other obstructions from the road is charity. A man's true wealth hereafter is the good he does in this world to his fellow-man. When he dies people will say: "What property has he left behind him? But the angels will ask: 'What good deeds has he sent before him?'"

The Philosopher of Folly.

"I tried to surprise a lady friend of mine by calling unexpectedly the other day," says the Philosopher of Folly, "but she must have seen me coming. There was one of my photographs on the mantel."
